Postliberal theology (often called narrative theology) is a Christian theological movement which became popular in the late twentieth century. The movement's proponents argue that the church's use of the Bible should focus on a narrative presentation of the Christian faith as regulative for the development of a coherent systematic theology. Thus Christianity is to be viewed as an overarching ...

Grow in understanding of the Christian faith. In the words of Saint Paul, the aim of The School of Theology is "to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ." (Ephesians 4.12-13)
