The Indian Act (An Act respecting Indians, French: Loi sur les Indiens), (the Act) is a Canadian Act of Parliament that concerns registered Indians, their bands, and the system of Indian reserves. First passed in 1876 and still in force with amendments, it is the primary document which defines how the Government of Canada interacts with the 614 First Nation bands in Canada and their members.

A: You could find out who currently owns the mineral rights under the property by searching the land records at the county clerk's office, or online. In lieu of that you could contact a local abstract office and have them do the search for you. The county clerk's records can be searched for free however so I'd try that first.
