the semblance of identity pdf

Nevertheless, despite this lacuna, The Semblance of Identity has a bold and original argument. Lee's conclusion that "the pressing task is to scrupulously expose the dangers of identity politics while recognizing its critical potential" is surely one that will prove influential in Asian American studies and in ethnic studies more generally (152).

"The Remains of Identity." Review of Entanglements, by Rey

This book explores Asian American culture and politics by focusing on the notion of identity. It considers how the critique of identity politics has reconfigured the parameters of Asian American Studies and traces the persistence of what it calls the "idealized critical subject," a theoretical figure that operates throughout Asian American literary culture and cultural criticism.
